

To Whom It May Concern

It is with great pride and confidence that I write this letter in support of Ms. Itumeleng Moeletsi. I have had the pleasure of working with Itumeleng across several strategic initiatives during her tenure at iVeri Payment Technologies, iVeri Global, and TouchPoint Payment Technologies, where I serve as Chief Executive Officer. Her contributions have been nothing short of exemplary, and she has consistently embodied the values of excellence, professionalism, and integrity.

Itumeleng joined the Group as Legal Counsel and rapidly became a key strategic advisor across our local and global operations. She played a central role in developing and reviewing a wide range of legal agreements, including multi-jurisdictional partnerships, commercial contracts, and compliance documentation critical to our fintech operations. Her ability to work with our global clientele – spanning Africa, Europe, and beyond – was seamless. She communicated with clarity, adapted to complex cross-border legal environments, and always ensured that the group's legal posture was sound, ethical, and aligned with our strategic objectives.

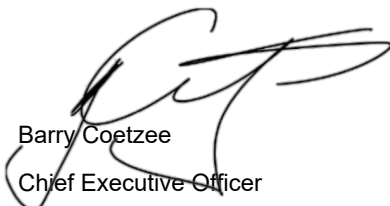

What truly distinguishes Itumeleng is not only her technical legal expertise but the strength of her character. She carries herself with unwavering integrity, demonstrates outstanding attention to detail, and has an unrelenting commitment to excellence. She navigates high-pressure situations with grace and composure, often bringing a sense of calm and clarity to fast-moving projects. Her ability to collaborate across executive teams and provide commercially sound legal advice made her an indispensable part of our leadership conversations.

Throughout her time with the group, Itumeleng approached her work with a deep sense of responsibility and discretion. She was entrusted with high-value negotiations and was a driving force behind initiatives that required legal innovation, risk awareness, and ethical stewardship — all qualities I consider fundamental in any senior legal role.

In my view, Itumeleng exemplifies the characteristics of an ideal legal counsel: she is intellectually rigorous, commercially astute, solution-oriented, and deeply principled. She would be an asset not only to any legal team or set of chambers but to any organisation committed to legal integrity and strategic growth.

I recommend Itumeleng Moeletsi without reservation for any legal opportunity, including pupillage and future legal practice. I am confident she will excel in whatever she commits herself to and will continue to make meaningful contributions to the legal profession.

Yours sincerely,

Barry Coetzee

To Whom It May Concern

It is my pleasure to recommend Itumeleng Moeletsi for pupillage. I had the privilege of managing Itumeleng during her time at IoT.nxt, where she served as Legal and Compliance Advisor within our organisation. Her ability to blend strategic legal insight with business practicality made her a standout member of our team.

Itumeleng took ownership of complex legal and regulatory matters with exceptional professionalism and precision. She played a key role in contract negotiations, risk assessments, and the development of compliance frameworks, always ensuring that legal solutions aligned with the organisation's commercial objectives.

Beyond her legal expertise, Itumeleng exhibited outstanding leadership, reliability, and emotional intelligence. She communicated with clarity, managed stakeholder expectations with tact, and consistently added value across departments.

She is an exceptional legal professional with the integrity, diligence, and intellect needed to thrive at the Bar. I confidently support her application for pupillage.

Yours sincerely,

Dwayne Williams

To Whom It May Concern,

RE: RECOMMENDATION IN SUPPORT OF MS. ITUMELENG MOELETSI – PUPILLAGE APPLICATION

I write this letter with great confidence and pleasure in support of Ms. Itumeleng Moeletsi's application for admission to pupillage at the Bar in South Africa.

I have had the privilege of mentoring and observing Ms. Moeletsi's journey through the legal profession and can attest to her rare blend of academic excellence, practical competence, and deep commitment to justice. She is, without question, an ideal candidate for pupillage and a future asset to the profession.

Ms. Moeletsi is an exceptionally driven and intellectually rigorous legal professional. Holding a BCom Law and LLB and currently pursuing her Master of Laws (LLM) with a focus on Corporate and Commercial Law, she demonstrates not only academic commitment but a strategic alignment with areas of law that are critical to South Africa's economic development. Her research interest in corporate governance and legal risk mitigation, particularly for SMEs, is forward-thinking and socially relevant qualities that speak directly to the transformative goals of the legal profession in our country.

Her career reflects an impressive versatility. She began her legal practice at the Soweto Law Clinic, grounding herself in the fundamentals of community-based justice and courtroom exposure. She later transitioned into the corporate advisory environment, where she has provided legal guidance in the fintech and technology sectors. This dual exposure—grassroots litigation and high-level commercial compliance—has equipped her with a unique and balanced perspective on the law.

Itumeleng embodies the ethical standards, diligence, and professional maturity that the Bar demands. She is articulate, confident, and deeply committed to the rule of law. Her advocacy, both oral and written, is measured, persuasive, and well-grounded in legal authority and logic. She carries herself with quiet strength and integrity—traits that make her a natural fit for chambers committed to excellence, transformation, and service to society.

I have no doubt that Ms. Moeletsi will thrive during pupillage and will go on to be a formidable member of the Bar. She is exactly the type of advocate our justice system needs—intellectually sharp, socially conscious, and professionally principled.

Should you require any additional information, I would gladly make myself available.

To Whom It May Concern

It is with sincere enthusiasm that I recommend Ms. Itumeleng Moeletsi for pupillage. I had the privilege of working closely with Itumeleng during her time in the Tax & Legal division at Deloitte, where I served as a Senior Manager. During our tenure together, I witnessed first-hand her deep commitment to the legal profession, her analytical precision, and her passion for justice — qualities that make her an ideal candidate for pupillage and future practice at the Bar.

From the onset, Itumeleng demonstrated a rare combination of legal insight, professionalism, and commercial awareness. She was engaged in a range of advisory matters that demanded a robust understanding of legal frameworks, from tax compliance and corporate governance to contractual structuring and regulatory alignment. Her ability to navigate nuanced legal terrain while delivering practical, business-minded solutions set her apart.

Itumeleng approaches legal work with a strong sense of purpose and ethical clarity. She was consistently entrusted with high-responsibility tasks, including the drafting of legal opinions, client-facing memoranda, and technical analysis on statutory obligations. What struck me most was her capacity to distill complexity into clarity — an essential skill for any advocate.

Even after her transition to the Risk Advisory team, Itumeleng remained deeply grounded in legal reasoning, particularly in areas of regulatory risk, legal compliance, and policy development. She showed maturity beyond her years, working effectively across multidisciplinary teams while retaining a sharp legal lens.

Throughout her time at Deloitte, Itumeleng embodied the values of accountability, transformation, and service to others — values that resonate with the broader mission of the legal profession in South Africa. She is not only well-prepared for the rigours of pupillage, but also poised to make a meaningful contribution to the advancement of justice in our society.

I have no doubt that she will thrive under the mentorship of senior counsel and will rise to the challenges of practice with discipline, empathy, and intellectual rigour. I offer my highest recommendation for her application.
